

LESSON 4:
HOW TO LIVE
TITUS 2: 1-10

Have you ever been on a _____? If you travel a long distance, be it by boat, walking or plane, it matters what path you take. Anyone who pilots could tell you the smallest degree off-course can make a _____.

The same is true about our lives, so it matters how you live.

Tonight we are going to look at how we should live, as Christians in an imperfect world, what should we do and not do, because how we live and treat others matters.

SMALL GROUP: TITUS 2: 1-10 (NLT)

1As for you, Titus, promote the kind of living that reflects wholesome teaching.2 Teach the older men to exercise self-control, to be worthy of respect, and to live wisely. They must have sound faith and be filled with love and patience.

3 Similarly, teach the older women to live in a way that honors God. They must not slander others or be heavy drinkers. Instead, they should teach others what is good. 4 These older women must train the younger women to love their husbands and their children, 5 to live wisely and be pure, to work in their homes, to do good, and to be submissive to their husbands. Then they will not bring shame on the word of God.

6 In the same way, encourage the young men to live wisely. 7 And you yourself must be an example to them by doing good works of every kind. Let everything you do reflect the integrity and seriousness of your teaching. 8 Teach the truth so that your teaching can't be criticized. Then those who oppose us will be ashamed and have nothing bad to say about us.

9 Slaves must always obey their masters and do their best to please them. They must not talk back 10 or steal, but must show themselves to be entirely trustworthy and good. Then they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive in every way.
